Dear Helen & Elmer,

I wore my new sweater today and received all sorts of compliments. Where did you find it? It is absolutely perfect for me. Thanks ever so much!! I love it!

Jim took off for San Diego this afternoon but will be back Friday. We have been busy little house keepers trying to get our place organized this week - it is shaping up rather nicely now. We still haven't received our new sofa & sofa-bed so they will make quite an impact.

Only a week and two days til we jet off to Germany. I hope we'll be ready - there is so much to think about, but it's fun & exciting. We'll be sending you postcards.

Thanks again, darlings! Love, Vicki
